

Timesoldiers

Verse

So they come to put the fear in me and even fear, has never been a part of me First the dog bites me, then he barks,
they are talking about me Maybe about how I should have been, Maybe?!?
Maybe about how I should be They don't know the reason why, know nothing at all about me and my reality, no matter what they think to see - no matter!
The cold shadow is following me,
the lines of sorrow are engraving on my face,
locked up like a prisoner,
and I still can't feel myself face to face and I am starting to freeze in your hate
I know I don't like you....

Chorus

...but I do know why!
...but I do know why!

Verse

When I fall to my knees
I wake up and I am free, free from the ironchains
in the temple of my mind, I send them off,
the warriors have been marching off,
standing there together,
they are now a part of me
the walls are growing towards the light, in the light they start to fight they start to fight
I know I don't like you....

Chorus

...but I do know why!
...but I do know why!

One timesoldier gives the kiss on my neck I turned around, and no one was therev

Bridge

Tear away, that hurts.
I am now free, from your reality!
tender so tender, I, I, I live in me, free so free, I belong to no one!
I'm spat out, I'm spat out, I'm spat out
Out from my hungry mind!
...of my hungry mind...

If this timesoldier does not exist there will be no freedom for me. With wet eyes...Noem
